Regional TDM Advisory Committee Meeting Summary

Date: February 9, 2022 from 1:00 p.m.- 3:00 p.m.

Location: Remote – Online Meeting Only (Zoom Connection)

Welcome and Introductions

Co-chairs Jennifer Hass, (Community Transit) and Sarah Spicer (City of Seattle), welcomed everyone at 1:00 p.m. Jennifer took a roll call and confirmed the members and alternates present.

Approval of Meeting Summary

The summary for the October 13, 2021 TDM Advisory Committee meeting was approved as submitted.

PSRC Committee Debriefs

Gil Cerise, PSRC, provided an overview of the January meeting topics for the Regional Staff Committee and the Regional Project Evaluation Committee. Jennifer noted she and Sarah would be attending these committee meetings going forward.

Meeting materials for the Regional Staff Committee can be found at: <https://www.psrc.org/rsc-meetings>. Meeting materials for the Regional Project Evaluation Committee can be found at: <https://www.psrc.org/rpec-meetings>.

Discussion: Future of the Regional Household Travel Survey

Brian Lee, PSRC, provided an update on the 2021 regional household travel survey and reviewed the preparation and proposed timeline for the 2023 survey. He reviewed information on how to access existing Regional Household Travel Survey data for analysis of TDM topics and introduced plans for the next series of travel surveys. The committee discussed, asked questions, and provided comments.

The presentation can be found on the PSRC website here.

For more information, contact Brian Lee at blee@psrc.org or contact Suzanne Childress at schildress@psrc.org.

Discussion: RTP Released for Public Comment

Erin Hogan, PSRC, provided an update on the completion of the draft 2022-2050 Regional Transportation Plan. She reviewed highlights of the draft plan, the timeline of next steps and shared information on the online open house and opportunities to provide comment.

The full draft of the RTP and information regarding public comment are available at: engage.psrc.org.

The presentation can be found on the PSRC website here.

For more information contact Erin Hogan at ehogan@psrc.org

Discussion: PSRC Funding and Project Selection Update

Sarah Gutschow, PSRC, provided an overview of PSRC's federal funding programs and a potential timeline of the upcoming 2022 Project Selection process for federal highway and transit funding. She then provided an update on the Transportation Alternatives Program (TAP) and Rural Town Centers and Corridors funding competitions currently underway.

The presentation can be found on the PSRC website here.

Information on these programs is available at: <https://www.psrc.org/our-work/funding>

For more information contact Sarah Gutschow at sgutschow@psrc.org.

Discussion: WSDOT CTR Program Update

Ricardo Gotla, WSDOT, provided an overview on the Commute Trip Reduction (CTR) Law Update and potential expansion of the program. He provided a summary of the results from small group outreach evaluating the statewide approaches to expand the program. He reviewed the next steps, which include opportunities to engage at the upcoming TDM Executive Board meeting on February 22 and the TDM Technical Committee meeting on March 21.

Rebecca Jabbar, WSDOT, provided an update and information about the CTR Survey refresh and noted she should have a solid timeline for the revised approach in the coming weeks. The committee discussed and provided feedback.

The presentation can be found on the PSRC website here
