WAV-C

WASHINGTON
AUTONOMOUS VEHICLE CLUSTER

KITSAP ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ALLIANCE

WAV-C is a marine innovation cluster working on the development and deployment of autonomous systems. We bring together a consortium of government agencies, academic institutions, corporations, and entrepreneurs. WAV-C's aims to make the PNW the premier destination of all things autonomous.
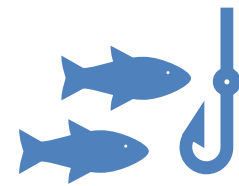

Members

Focus Areas

Government contracting for our members

Fisheries

Environmental Remediation

Search and Rescue

Policy and standards

Projects & Initiatives

- Building a testing facility for autonomous solutions

- Capacity Building through cooperation

- Facilitating the sharing of marine data.

Promoting collaboration between public, private and Capital

Establishing platforms to advance novel solutions
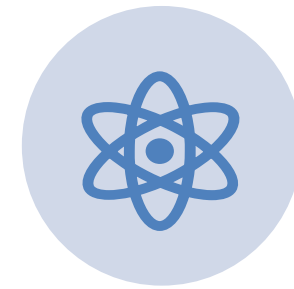

Environmental remediation projects

Economic Development & Opportunities

WAV-C can serve as a platform for regional expansion

Promote regional opportunities inc: roles in manufacturing, software development, & testing

Shared innovation through new solutions and technologies (patent, products, services)

Share research and development across sectors

Standards and Regulations

Advance Collaboration (partnerships, academic research, knowledge and best practices exchanges)

Capital placement

More information:

Seth Abelson
WAV-C Program Director
abelson@kitsapeda.org

Rochelle LeMay
WAV-C Business Development Director
lemay@kitsapeda.org

www.wav-c.com